

Dr. Cleve James is a physician of General Internal Medicine. He is from Scarborough, Tabago. Dr. James received his undergraduate degree from Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia. He received a PhD in Medicine from Morehouse School of Medicine and his MD from Howard University College of Medicine. He was also ABIM Certified from Johns Hopkins/Sinai Internal Medicine Residency Program, Baltimore, Maryland. Dr. James and his family moved to Houston, Texas in 2012. He joined the Pan African Orthodox Christian Church on September 30, 2018.

His outstanding professional history has provided Dr. James with the opportunity to serve communities in Washington, D.C., Bethesda, MD., Duluth, MN., Bemidji, MD., Golden Valley, MN and Sugarland, Houston and Pasadena, Texas. He has extensive publications in numerous medical journals. Dr. James has received numerous Honors and Awards: National Dean's List and Honor Roll from Morehouse College, Atlanta, GA, Distinguished Biology Presenter at 57th Annual Beta Kappa Chi National Institute of Science, distinguished undergraduate presenter at 12th and 13th Annual Student Research Day Symposium, Acres of Diamond Award, Distinguished Graduate Presenter, Hampton Baker Memorial Scholarship and Dahlma and O. Anthony Ogundipe Endowed Academic Recognition Award.

Dr. James works with Shrine Houston's Health Ministry and offers free wellness screenings monthly in the Cultural and Event Center.